6 The Guide as Described in Section 10

The Guide will be available from the South African Human Rights Commission (“SAHRC”), and provides greater clarity on or assistance with the Act. It will, inter alia, include the following:

- What the objectives of this Act are;
- The relevant contact details of each public and private body (if available);
- The process that needs to be followed in order to request access to records;
- The assistance available from the information officer of a public body and the SAHRC;
- How to obtain access to a manual of a public and private body;
- All the remedies available in law to you; and
- Details on prescribed fees payable in respect of requests for information.

The guide has been compiled in each official language and contains such information, in an easily comprehensible form and manner, as may reasonably be required by a person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in the Act.

7.1 Records Available without Requesting Access in Terms of the Act

A private body may, on a voluntary and periodic basis, submit to the Minister of Justice a description of categories of records, which are automatically available without a person having to request access in terms of the Act. The Minister must publish any description so submitted by way of a notice in the Gazette.

7.2 Records Available on Request

Set out below are the subjects and categories of records that are available for the purposes of the Act, subject to grounds for refusal to the access thereof.

Records are maintained on the following subjects:

- Personnel records
- Client related records
- Private body records
- Records in the possession of or pertaining to other parties

7.3 Personnel records

“Personnel” refers to any person who works for, or provides services to or on behalf of the Entities, and receives or is entitled to receive remuneration, and any other person who assists in carrying out or conducting the business of the private body. This includes, without limitation, directors (executive and non-executive), all permanent, temporary, and part-time staff, as well as contract workers.

7.4 Personal records include the following:

- Personal records provided to the private body by their personnel;
- Records provided by a third party to the private body relating to their personnel;
- Conditions of employment and other personnel-related contractual and quasi-legal records;
- Internal evaluation records and other internal records; and
- Correspondence relating to personnel.

7.5 Client related records

A “client” refers to any natural or juristic entity that receives services from the private body.

Client records include the following:

- Records provided by the client to a third party acting for or on behalf of the private body;
- Records provided by a third party to the private body;
- Records generated by or within the private body pertaining to the client including transactional records; and
- Records of RSA Group and other listed Entities.

These records include, but are not limited to, the records which pertain to the various Entities’ own affairs:

- Financial records;
- Operational records;
- Databases;
- Information Technology;
- Marketing records;
- Internal correspondence;
- Records relating to products and services;
- Statutory records;
- Internal Policies and Procedures; and
- Records held by officials of the private body.

Other Party records include the following:

- Personnel, client or private body records which are held by another party, as opposed to the records held by the private body; and
- Records held by the private body pertaining to other parties, including without limitation, financial records, correspondence, contractual records, records provided by the other party and records third parties have provided about the contractors and suppliers.

8 Processing of personal information

Purpose of Processing

The Entities use the Personal Information under their care in the following ways:

- Performing business operations
- Staff administration
- Keeping of accounts and records
- Complying with tax laws

RSA Group may possess records pertaining to contractors, suppliers, subsidiary/holding/sister companies, joint venture companies, and service providers, staff and clients.

Data Subjects	Type of Personal Information Held

Clients: Natural Persons	Full names, contact details, physical and postal addresses, date of birth, ID number, Tax related information, nationality, gender, correspondence of a private/confidential nature
Service Providers	Full name and Registration number of the entity, Physical and Postal addresses, Contact Details, Financial Information, VAT number
Employees	Full names; contact details, physical and postal addresses, date of birth, ID number, Tax related information, nationality, gender, correspondence of a private/confidential nature, Gender, Pregnancy, Marital Status, Race, Age, Language, Education information, Financial Information, Employment History, ID number, Physical and Postal address, Contact details, Opinions, Criminal behaviour, Well-being

9 The Recipients or Categories of Recipients to Whom the Personal Information may be Supplied

RSA Group may supply the Personal Information under their care to service providers who render the following services to RSA Group:

- Cloud-based services such as data storage, network, email and security services;
- Cloud-based applications such as Human Resource or Marketing solutions;
- Third-party organizations providing legal services;
- Third-party organizations engaged for common commercial purpose, such as service provision, joint ventures, or collective bid responses;
- Credit reference entities, used in the normal course of business; and
- Government organizations such as South African Revenue Services, as required for legal purposes.

10 General Description of Information Security Measures

RSA Group employs the latest technology to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of its information assets which include the Personal Information under its care. These measures include:

- Boundary firewalls and Internet gateways;
- Secure configuration of all devices and software which make up the IT infrastructure;
- Both logical and physical access controls;
- Malware protection; and
- Patch management to keep software up to date.

Service Providers who process Personal Information on behalf of RSA Group are bound by agreement to implement similar information security controls than those employed by RSA Group.

11 Procedure to Request Access to Information

If you want to obtain access to any of the records listed in this manual, you should follow the procedure as set out below, and a non-refundable request fee of R50.00 + VAT.

- Fill in the application form contained in this manual and send it to us via hand delivery, postal service, or email.
- Hand in your completed application form, and a non-refundable request fee of R50.00 + VAT at our office. If you are an employee or ex-employee requesting access to your personnel record, then you do not have to pay the request fee.
- If you cannot visit our office in person, you can post the form and fee to us, or you can contact us to make alternative payment arrangements.

11.1 Our Response

We will consider your request and let you know our decision, in writing, not more than 30 days after we receive your request.

Our response will be one of the following:

- Your application does not contain enough information to enable us to search for the record you want. Please provide additional details.
- It is going to take us more than six hours to search through our records, and before we do so you must pay us a deposit of R60.00 (plus VAT).
- We have found the record you're looking for, and you may have access to it, on payment of:
- an access fee of R30.00 (+ VAT) per hour for the time that it took us to find the record (less any deposit which you have already paid), and
- a reproduction fee for making photocopies or printouts or copying the record onto a stiffy disc or CD - the prescribed fees are set out in this manual

Note: we will not charge fees to an employee or ex-employee requesting access to his/her personnel record.

- If your request is for access to your Personal Information in terms of Section 23 of the Protection of Personal Information Act, we will give you a written estimate of the fee before providing the access. We may require you to pay a deposit for all or part of the fee.
- You may not have access to the record you want, for reasons which we will state in our reply. If you have paid a deposit, we will refund it (but not the request fee).
- If we have searched for the record and cannot find it, we will give you an affidavit explaining what steps we took to try and find the record. Should the missing record later come to light, we will notify you.
- If we may or must refuse to give you access to part of the requested Personal Information, we will give you access to every other part.

11.2 Your Right of Access to Information

Both the Promotion of Access to Information Act and the Protection of Personal Information Act entitle you to have access to our records, if:

- you need access to exercise or protect any of your rights, and
- you apply for access according to the procedure set out in this manual, and
- the Entities do not have grounds for refusing you access.

11.3 Our Right to Refuse Access to Information

We have the right to refuse to give you access to our records if any of the following grounds apply:

- the record would unreasonably disclose Personal Information about a natural person, including a deceased individual (unless that third party or a representative of the deceased gives written permission for access);
- the record contains (a) trade secrets, or (b) financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, or (c) information about research by a third party, which could put that third party at a disadvantage in a negotiation or prejudice him in competition (unless that third party gives written permission for access);
- access would put us in breach of a duty of confidence which we owe to a third party (unless that third party gives written permission for access);

- access could reasonably be expected to (a) endanger someone's life or physical safety, or (b) prejudice or impair the security of a building, structure, system, means of transport or other property;
- the record is privileged from being produced as evidence in legal proceedings (unless the person protected by the privilege has waived that protection); or
- if the request is for access to your Personal Information, and you could not provide adequate proof of identity to us.

12 Promotion of Access to Information Act

12.1 Fees Payable in respect of Private Bodies

The fee for a copy of the manual as contemplated in regulation 9(2)(c) is R2,00 for every photocopy of an A4-size page or part thereof.

The fees for reproduction referred to in regulation 11 (1) are as follows:

For every photocopy of an A4-size page or part thereof R2,00

For every printed copy of an A4-size page or part thereof held on a computer or in electronic or machine-readable form	R2,00
For a copy in a computer-readable form on - compact disc	R100,00
For a transcription of visual images on an A4-sized page or part thereof	R400,00
For copy of visual images	R60,00
For transcription of an audio record	R500,00 per page or part thereof
For a copy of an audio record	R30,00

To search for and prepare the record for disclosure: R30,00 for each hour or part of an hour reasonably required for such search and preparation

For purposes of section 54(2) of the Act, the following applies:

- Six hours as the hours to be exceeded before a deposit is payable; and
- One third of the access fee is payable as a deposit by the requestor.
- The actual postage is payable when a copy of a record must be posted to a requester.
